CALL FOR EU PROJECT WORKSHOPS
FOR "THE ARES EU PROJECTS SYMPOSIUM" 2015

ARES 2015
10th International Conference on Availability, Reliability and Security
24th - 28th August 2015
Toulouse, France

GENERAL INFORMATION

The 10th International Conference on Availability, Reliability and Security (ARES) will be held from 24 – 28 August 2015 at the Université Paul Sabatier in Toulouse, France.

- ARES will bring together researchers and practitioners in the area of dependability.

- ARES will highlight the various aspects of security – with special focus on the crucial linkage between availability, reliability and security.

- ARES aims at a full and detailed discussion of the research issues of security as an integrative concept that covers amongst others availability, safety, confidentiality, integrity, maintainability and security in the different fields of applications.

- ARES will emphasise the interplay between foundations and practical issues of security in emerging areas such as e-government, m-government, location-based applications, ubiquitous computing, autonomous computing, chances of grid computing etc.

- ARES is devoted to the critical examination and research challenges of the various aspects of Secure and Dependable Computing and the definition of a future road map.
